

Business Battlefields

Is getting your message across to your colleagues and team members proving harder than ever?

Next time you need something truly different for your staff communication or team building exercise, why not go back to the basics. We offer an exclusive, in-depth and enthralling experience which delivers relevance, excitement and is uniquely memorable.

Waterloo - the most famous battle in world history - what better place to draw upon the knowledge and experience of the great leaders. This great battle is broken down for you by our renowned expert guide Major Graham Cooper of the British Army, and it's relevance to today's business world becomes immediately clear. Subjects covered with real life examples from the battle are:-

- Pitfalls of hesitation by the leaders
- Problems of loading too much responsibility at the top
- Achieving victory against all odds
- Successful and not so successful chain of command structures
- Interpretation and misinterpretation of orders
- Benefits and mistakes of ignoring orders
- Working alone with a selfish agenda
- The Command problem and see why Marshal Ney could not see out of the valley and Napoleon could not see into it
- Selection of the right battleground
- Underestimating the competition
- Arrogance of your own position and the success of your company

And then, relax.

Whether you wish to go sight-seeing in Brussels or play golf at the Royal Waterloo Golf Club, float in a Hot-air Balloon over the battlefields or just simply relax around the hotel grounds - the choice is yours.